From District Governor Rod Chisholm

Happy 2014!

It's going to be a fantastic and prosperous Lion's year, beginning near the Mexican border and culminating in a Canadian city.

Our next District-wide event is the Mid-Winter Conference in Eagle Pass. All Lions and Leos are cordially invited to attend. Every Club President and Club Secretary are official members of the District Governor's Cabinet, and as such are invited to attend. Dress is "Lions Casual" in that most folks wear their Lions Vest. Events are as follows:

There is a Friday Evening Social on January 17th beginning at 7:00pm at the Holiday Inn Express, 2007 No. Veterans Blvd.

All are invited to enjoy "heavy" hor d'oeuvres coupled with various beverages. Traditionally this evening features the introduction of those candidates who will be running for district offices in the District Convention. Also this evening will witness the winners of our Youth Contests, which includes:

Diabetic Awareness Essay Contest, chaired by Lion Katherine Willems-Darter, Natalia Lions Club.

Outstanding Youth Contest,

chaired by Lion Ken Book, Region 20 Lions Club.

Drug Awareness Speech Contest, chaired by Lion Mando Landeras of Sabinal Lions Club.

PDG Raymond Conner of the Edgewood Lions Club is the overall Youth Task Force Chairman.

The Business Meeting will commence at the Eagle Pass International Center for Trade, 3295 Bob Rogers.

Registration and breakfast begins at 8:00am with the business meeting beginning at 9:00am sharp with the Opening Ceremonies.

Immediately following the Business Meeting, a lunch will be served...and...as a special treat, there will be a terrific speaker, Coach David Vince. David's story is one who overcame adversity - an above-knee double amputee since birth—who enjoyed a 29-year baseball coaching career! David's story is an up-beat, motivational inspiration. A fellow Lion, he is driving in from Louisiana just to be with us in Eagle Pass. You don't want to miss this one!

The next event is the Texas Lions Leadership Forum March 1-2 to be held at the Airport Hilton in Austin. It begins on Saturday at an

2-A2 District Governor

11:30am luncheon - followed by terrific break-out training sessions followed by a Saturday Banquet. Dress is "Lions Casual" as many folks wear the Lions Vests. Sunday continues with a 7:00am breakfast followed by additional sessions and a conclusion luncheon at noon.

Mark your new calendar with the dates of Friday, April 11th and Saturday, April 12th...for this is the Annual 2-A2 District Convention to be held at San Antonio Airport Holiday Inn. The convention room rate is but $92.00 plus taxes. BUT, do you want to get your room for 2 nights for free? Simply buy a $20 raffle ticket at the Mid-Winter Conference, as during the Mid-Winter we shall draw the winning Lion! See PDG Saul Lopez for tickets.

Have you ever been to a Lions State Convention? Have you ever been on a cruise? Well, here is an opportunity to accomplish both at the same time! The Lions of MD-2 (State of Texas) will be holding this year's annual convention on May 15-19.

Carnival Triumph

The convention starts on board a Carnival Cruise ship in Galveston and then sets sail for 5 days! A great way to combine Lions fellowship, luxurious travel, great food and great entertainment all for one low price.

Then we have the culmination! The Lions International Convention to be held in Toronto from July 4-8. This is the all-important meeting whereby Lions will select the new 2nd International Vice President. Each club had a vote - larger clubs get additional votes (one vote per 25 members rounded to the nearest whole number). There's a catch. NO ABSENTEE BALLOTS are allowed. If a club doesn't send a delegate, then the club loses its vote! It's imperative that each and every club in the district send a delegate to Toronto in order to place your vote for our own Lion, PID Mike Butler!

This race is shaping to be a very, very close one indeed. Lion Mike is picking up endorsements wherever he goes. Lions from all over the world know Lion Mike to be the dedicated, forthright, hard-working, service-oriented person that we in his home district know. But we need the voted.

Some clubs are chipping in to render financial assistance to their delegate. The race is close. Every vote counts.

Sounds like a lot of meetings, eh? (...that's how they say it in Canada...eh?).

Ah...there's more meetings than that, and that is your own club's regular meetings. Don't miss these meetings as this is where you get the ideas and inspiration to accomplish all of the service projects that you do. Personally, I look forward to visiting your club, if I have yet to do so this year. Call me on my cell to schedule it, I can be reached at (281) 507-8908.

Yours in Service,

Rod G. Chisholm
District Governor

One More Thing from District Governor Rod Chisholm

A special thank you to Lion Wendy Van Winkle, who served as the Newsletter Publisher for these six months. Wendy has moved from Del Rio to El Paso, and as such, will not be able to continue serving as newsletter publisher. 2nd VDG Jim Weed has agreed to step in to complete the year. Thank you, Jim!

Lion Wendy, you may remember, was the 2nd VDG for our District when she became quite ill, and was not physically able to complete the task. This year, 2013-2014 was to be Lion Wendy's year as Governor, until illness intervened. She's on the mend now, and our collective prayers and best wishes go out to her. We love you, Wendy!

District 2-A2 Lions Clubs Collect Supplies for Troops in Afghanistan

A “thank you” from our service men and women in Afghanistan

During the month of November, 2013, thirteen (13) District Lions clubs collected personal care and non-perishable snack items such as toothbrushes/toothpaste, shaving gel, disposable razors, deodorant, and beef jerky for the troops serving our country in Afghanistan.

On November 30th, Lions Ken & Debbie Book with the Region 20 Lions club drove a pick up load of supplies to The Hugs Project in Oklahoma City. This national non-profit project has been meeting the needs of our service men and women serving in combat zones for the past 15 years.

The clubs participating included:

Stride for Sight 2014

From 1st VDG Sam Pantusa, Stride For Sight Chairman

We hope that each and all had a very enjoyable and Merry Christmas.

We now begin the push for our 2014 Stride for Sight. As you know, we have been talking and sharing information for several months with our members, but now we move forward to make a big success out of this year's campaign. As always, it will require a large effort on your part, but since we have introduced two new pieces this year, it will probably take an even bigger effort.

We would ask that you copy the attachments on pages 4, 5, and 6 and distribute them as you can. Please see, also, that we are always looking to add to our sponsor base. We have several other requests for sponsorship in the mill.

Remember to encourage Club members that we really are looking to share the 5K Run information and the Raffle with others outside of our Clubs. We will be sending out similar information in the next couple of days to representatives of all Clubs which will be the beginning of several messages to them over the next three months. We will be taking registrations and passing out Run flyers at the Mid-Winter. Website for the Run is a www.kidsightrun.org.

We also have a Facebook page at Lions 5KRun for KidSight

We will also have Raffle Tickets for purchase.

I know that you have received packets of Raffle Tickets, but more will be distributed to Clubs.

Help as best you can and do not hesitate to ask me for help as you may need it.

When you get a chance, pass on thanks to Lion Diane Anderson - Helotes, Lion Floyd Daigle - LaVernia, Lion Dave Splittek - Hill Country Retreat, Lion Johnny Villalobos, Jr. - WestSide, and Lion Maxine Garza - Stockdale for their help on our 5K Run Committee.

“We now begin the push for our 2014 Stride for Sight.”

From 1st Vice District Governor Sam Pantusa

We all know that each and every January, resolutions are made with conviction, only to be dropped like a hot potato some time before February as unattainable, or just plain boring. We vow to lose weight, spend more quality time with our spouse and children, get strong and buff, and even to quit smoking or drinking in order to become healthier.

All seriousness aside, here are some silly New Years resolutions that might just make you laugh. Joking around and laughter can really be the best medicine at times, even when you're facing challenges and want to make GREAT THINGS HAPPEN. (Note how technology has impacted the ideas we have today about how to make life better. Not sure how many apply to those like me who were born too early to understand.)

"I hereby resolve to:"

- 1) Actually work from home on my telecommuting days.
- 2) Get dressed before noon or at the very least, before the video conferencing call with my boss.
- 3) Less e-mailing? Cancel at least a few of the 9 or 10 e-mail accounts I currently have.
- 4) Not talk on my cell phone while in the bathroom doing - - - (you finish this sentence).
- 5) Never pull away from the gasoline pump ... with the hose still in the tank (darn those cell phone calls).
- 6) Try and drive at or under the speed limit ... at least when I'm not hungry, tired or late.
- 7) Watch more television -it IS the "window into the world", right?
- 8) Keep my opinions to myself (yeah, right).

- 9) Get two friends to START possibly can. smoking that way I'll feel less guilty that I don't seem able to quit.

- 10) Play harder, work less who needs a paycheck anyway?

- 11) Wear something other than sweat pants to the grocery store

- 12) Stop repeating myself again, and again, and again.

- 13) Wear something other than sweat pants to the grocery store ... oops ... there I go again!

- 14) Stop procrastinating (I think I just might start next month).

- 15) Enjoy the sweeter side of life - M&Ms, Hershey kisses, candy corns, and cheesecake and ...

- 16) Gain some weight - I think I caught a glimpse of one of my ribs in the mirror yesterday.

- 17) Read something this year other than the comics.

- 18) Drive myself to the fitness center when I feel like going from now on because walking there makes me perspire.

- 19) Stop leaving my dirty gym socks lying in the middle of the floor. I'll leave them on the kitchen table, where they're easier to reach.

- 20) Kick the caffeine habit - hey, why does my over-sized coffee mug smell like sweaty socks?

- 21) Read those books I bought 5 years ago on "how to improve my memory" I keep forgetting to read them.

- 22) Be more decisive I'll absolutely try to attempt to think about resolving to be more decisive, if I

1st VDG Sam Pantusa

- 23) Quit making those SAME excuses I make the same excuses each year, why I'll do better next year, and it's getting pretty old - this year I resolve to come up with some new excuses instead.

Probably most of these silly New Year Resolutions didn't "fit" you at all. The reason most people make resolutions and set goals is because they are discontent with the state or size of their body, mind, or bank account. But, the majority of us toss aside most of the serious resolutions we make for ourselves within a few days or weeks. Why not try this? Begin with just a few resolutions and see how it goes. Remember: It typically takes commitment and a few months of practice with few or no "slips" to develop new habits.

All the previous material was taken from an article in Business Tune-Ups.com, by a fellow named Larry Rudwick. From here Larry offers a service to coach you in better business practices.

And of course, as Lions, we too can do better planning and managing and so forth. But the last line of the article is key to everything that any of us want to be good at, "It takes commitment and practice".

Think about what we are about and see if there is another level of commitment that you can make and just ask for help when it comes to practice if you need it.

A couple of REMINDERS -- We're looking for you to really GET INVOLVED in this YEAR's STRIDE for SIGHT and you can do this in these ways that can help us BUILD AWARENESS ALL AROUND our COMMUNITIES.

It's Great to Be a Lion!!!

It is a privilege to serve you.

Thanks for listening

Lion Sam

Texas Lions Camp

It is not too early to start thinking about summer camp at Texas Lions Camp. Registration begins the middle of January. Again you can register campers at the TLC website – www.lionscamp.com or print a hard copy of the registration form from the website. You can get leads in finding campers from school nurses, doctor’s offices and other places where there may be special needs kids. Stephen Mabry, the CEO of TLC, told us at the October Cabinet meeting about how a TLC license plate can get attention and lead you finding to eligible campers. It also has the website for the camp so people can visit the website. My TLC license plate is 2A2 and this has led to discussions with people about the camp. Lion Steve Mays and I (our district elected directors to the camp) are ready and willing to come to your club (or any interested group) and talk about the camp. The Edgewood Lions Club invited me to their Santa Surprise party in December for special needs kids and I got to talk to the parents about TLC. I thank that club for the opportunity and hope we get some campers from that party. Start looking for campers now and get them registered. The diabetic camps fill fast. The website gives the dates for the camps.

Remember that there are 5 camps for kids with physical disabilities, 2 diabetic camps, and one camp for kids with Down syndrome. Last summer we had 1480 campers which is an increase over the previous summer but we can still send more campers. Visit the TLC website and encourage others to do so. Then find campers for this coming summer.

From 2nd Vice District Governor Jim Weed

As happens every year many of us will write 2013 when we mean to write 2014. We’ll hear people say, “2013 went by too fast.” And many of us will make a resolution to change something about ourselves in 2014.

2nd VDG Jim Weed

The only resolution I’ve made is to continue to do my best to be a good Lion and invite as many people as will listen to join a Lions Club.

Someone famous once said “Where’s the Men’s Room?”

That has nothing to do with what I’m writing about, but it does remind me that all of us are pretty much the same. Some may have fame, but most of us go about our daily business without fanfare.

It’s us ordinary people who make the best Lions. So go talk with the ordinary people in your life. Tell them about Lions. Tell them about your club. Tell them why you joined Lions.

We have six months to have another year of net growth for District 2-A2. Do your part. Make it your new year’s resolution to talk to at least one person about Lions each day. Together we can grow.
